Escarpment Pet Retreat, also referred to as the “Kennel”, agrees to exercise due and reasonable care to keep its premises clean and safe. All pets will be fed properly and regularly according to customers’ instructions. The animal will not be taken off the premises except by consent of the owner.

The Kennel does not assume and shall not be held responsible for any liability with respect to the animal listed in this agreement arising from the boarding of this animal, or any damages that may accrue from any other cause including loss by fire, theft, running away, death, injury to persons, animal or property, or death or injury to any other animal caused by this named animal during the term of the contract. In no case shall the Kennel be in any way liable or responsible. The responsibility and/or liability of the Kennel, in no event shall exceed the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100) and the undersigned agrees to this limit for all damages sustained or suffered by reason of the boarding of this animal. Furthermore, you agree not to claim any damages against the Kennel of any nature whatsoever, either by way of contract, equity, negligence or otherwise, in excess of $100. Written notification of damages must be claimed within 24 hours from the time that the animal is picked up from the Kennel.

The owner of the specified animal is the sole owner of said animal and there is not any lien or mortgage against said animal and that the named animal has not been exposed to distemper or rabies within the last thirty days.

The Kennel is granted a lien on the above named animal for any and all unpaid boarding and/or other charges resulting from the boarding of the animal with the kennel. The Kennel may exercise its lien rights once boarding charges are not paid within seven days. The owner will be notified and the animal removed 3 days later. Notice in writing of such intended disposal shall be mailed by registered mail to the owner of the named animal at the address given herein, and no further notice shall be required.

If the animal becomes ill and requiring veterinary care, every effort will be made to contract yourself and/or the emergency contact listed on this agreement for immediate instruction for medical care. If we are unable to ascertain direction and the state of the animal’s health requires immediate attention, we reserve the right to call a veterinarian or administer medicine within the discretion of the Kennel and expenses incurred for such treatment shall be added to the boarding invoice and paid by the owner of the animal.

The owner guarantees payment of this bill. If, for any reason, this bill is not paid when presented, and placed in the hand of a solicitor for collection, the owner agrees that a reasonable fee may be added for solicitor’s fees and other such costs as the court may allow. Interest will be charged on overdue bills at the rate of 2% per month.
